

Directions to Fairfield Osborn Preserve

From the north:

- Take Highway 101 and exit on the Rohnert Park Expressway.
- Turn left (east) on Rohnert Park Expressway, and continue until you reach the T-intersection with Petaluma Hill Road.
- Turn right (south) on Petaluma Hill Road and go 0.5 miles
- Turn left on Roberts Road. Drive approximately 1 mile
- Turn right on Lichau Road. NARROW AND WINDING. DRIVE SLOWLY.
- Follow Lichau Road 3.8 miles almost to the end. When you see Eagle Ridge Road to your left and white corral fence, keep to the right to stay on Lichau Road. As you near the end, the road will become narrow.
- Pass the lower gate and continue up the hill.
- About 100 yards before the end of the road and to your right, you will see the Osborn Preserve sign and a low bar-type gate (it should be open).
- Proceed through the gate and take a short dirt road to the parking lot below.

Preserve Entrance

From the south:

- Highway 101 and exit (turn right) on Old Redwood Highway. Continue 1.5 miles.
- Turn right on Main Street, which becomes Petaluma Hill Road. Continue on Petaluma Hill Road north for 2.3 miles.
- Turn right on Roberts Road.
- Directions as above.

Note: The Osborn Preserve gate is almost at the very end of Lichau Road (beyond the point indicated by Google Maps)