

Preserve Access & Regulations

Access

- Submit an Application.
- Wait to receive approval.

Submit Liability Waivers for each visitor by mail. Ensure they arrive at the Center at least one business day in advance of your visit. Forms may also be dropped off at Darwin Hall, Room 115. Liability Waiver for Adults ; Liability Waiver for Minors; Liability Waiver for Minors Enrolled in Osborn Elementary School Program

Sign in each time you

- Pay use fees if required at Center Events SSU Box Office. Use fees are charged to non-SSU employees for the Osborn Elementary School Program and use of the Osborn Facilities.

Once at the box office page select Center for Environmental Inquiry from the drop down menu located at the top left of the screen.

Regulations

- Sign in at the entrance to the Preserve and close and lock gates.
- Drive only on designated roads and parking areas and camp only in designated areas. At the Galbreath Preserve, vehicles must be 4-wheel drive.
- Do not disturb or remove animals, plants, rocks, human artifacts, flags, posts or other markers. Human artifacts 50 years or older are protected. Violations are a misdemeanor under State law. Download the Artifacts Flyer for more information.
- Take all materials, equipment, and trash with you when you leave.
- Fires are not allowed at the Osborn Preserve, and only during wet conditions (November to May) at the Galbreath Preserve. Do not smoke or use illegal drugs, firearms, or weapons of any kind. Consumption of alcoholic beverages must conform to University policies.
- To prevent the spread of the Sudden Oak Death pathogen, Osborn Preserve visitors must follow instructions posted in the parking lot to wash mud from their shoes.
- Publications - Acknowledge the Center for Environmental Inquiry in publications and written materials and provide copies to the Center Director.